

Total number of printed pages—4

21 (5), SOCI 5-1

2019

SOCIOLOGY

(Major)

Paper : 5-1

Full Marks : 80

Time : Three hours

The figures in the margin indicate full marks for the questions.

1. Answer the following : 1×10=10

(a) The emergence of sociology has its roots in _____. (Asia/Europe)

(b) French Revolution took place in the year _____. (1776/1789)

(c) _____ argued that like the physical world society also operates under its own set of laws. (Comte/Spencer)

(d) The book 'Rules of Sociological Methods' was written by _____. (Durkheim/Comte)

Contd.

(e) The main focus of Marxist theories is on the _____. (economics of upper class/worker's condition)

(f) Comte believed that _____ method could be applied to the study of human behaviour. (scientific/comparative)

(g) _____ has been a strong influence for Marx. (Mill/Hegel)

(h) Durkheim believed that society was based on _____. (conflict/consensus)

(i) System to rules devised for logical reasons are termed as _____. (Traditional/Rational)

(j) Personal authority of an individual is _____. (Traditional/Charismatic)

2. Write short notes on : $2 \times 5 = 10$

(a) Enlightenment

(b) Positive Philosophy

(c) Anomic Suicide

(d) Proletarianisation

(e) Goal-oriented action.

3. (a) 'Sociology is the outcome of various forces of evolution' — Elaborate the statement. 12

OR

(b) Discuss the impact of urbanisation upon the growth of Sociology as a discipline.

4. (a) 'Sociology is a positive science' — Discuss. 12

OR

(b) Distinguish between the various stages of society as put forward by Auguste Comte.

5. (a) 'Social facts are external phenomena' — Explain the statement. 12

OR

(b) Identify Durkheim's visualisation of society through division of labour.

6. (a) Discuss Karl Marx's idea of class and class struggle. How far is it applicable in the modern society? 12

OR

(b) What is alienation? How does it impact on the workers in a capitalist society?

7. (a) Discuss Weber's categorisation of social action with appropriate examples.

12

OR

(b) Highlight the framework of Protestant Ethic and the Spirit of Capitalism.