

Total number of printed pages-4

23. (3) LLM.3-2. (CRL)

2013

LAW OF CRIMES-II

Paper : 3022

Full Marks : 80

Pass Marks : 32

Time : Three hours

The questions are of equal value.

1. Write short notes on —

(a) The amplitude of injury or harm.

(b) Murder versus Man slaughter

(c) Misstate of Law

(d) Importance of General Exception clause in Indian Penal Code.

Contd.

Or

How does criminal law deal with the inchoate crime known as attempt? What is the test to determine whether an indictable attempt has been committed? How does the Indian Penal Code deal with this problem by recognizing different stages, preparation and culpability?

2. Attempt an exhaustive note on offences against property. Examine the term property from modern day parlance.

Or

Examine the extent to which the offences against intellectual property has been covered by the law of crime. Do you think these are adequate to conform to modern day developments? If not, what measures do you suggest to overcome the shortcoming.

3. What are the various types of offences enumerated in the Penal Code against Public Servants. Attempt a critical appraisal of these offences.

Or

What are the essential ingredients to bring a case within Section 304B and Section 498A of the IPC? Can a person be convicted and charged under both the Sections and punished separately for each of the offences?

4. What do you mean by the term Cyber Crime. Discuss the developments taking place in India with regard to dealing of offences against cyber crime.

Or

It has been said that with the development of technology, criminals and terrorists have taken advantage of such type of technology to commit crimes.

State the developments in the field of cyber law to deal with transnational crimes.

5. The Law Commission of India have over the years provided several recommendations to the Government of India relating to amendments in the criminal law. Mention a few of such recommendations and state their views on the law of rape. Discuss to what extent the recent amendment to the criminal law amendment Act has accommodated the views of the Law Commission.

Or

Reflect on the views of the Law Commission with regard to the criminal justice system. To what extent according to you the Recommendations of the Malimath Committee and the Menon Committee echo the views of the Law Commission ?