

Total number of printed pages--4

23(3) LLM 3-3 (CRL)

2012

SOCIO ECONOMIC CRIME-I

Paper : 3-3

Full Marks : 80

Time : Three hours

The figures in the margin indicate full marks for the questions.

1. Socio-Economic crimes have gained in recognition across the globe in recent times due to spurt in such crimes.
Discuss the nature in developments of socio-economic crimes in the 20th Century leading to the present Century.
State whether you deserved any significance changes in the development of socio-economic crimes.

16

Contd.

185

37

OR

White-Collar Crimes have gained in parlance in current times, particularly show in India. Discuss the nature of white collar crimes. Are there different types of such crimes. Do you feel that Scams like 2G and Tatra deals come within the category of this crime. Justify your answer with arguments. 16

2. Attempt a critique of the Information Technology Act, 2000.
Suggesting amendment to the same to tackle issues of hacking and other offences. 16

OR

Attempt an analysis of the Information Technology Act, 2000.
Do you feel that the Act adequately reflects the objects and reasons behind the legislation. 16

3. The Bureau of Economic offence have been in the news in the state in recent times. Many citizens groups have been approaching the agency to handle cases of fraud in many finance companies like UNIPAY etc.
Discuss the nature of Economic offences alleged to have been committed by such companies.

Do you feel that the legal regime governing Economic offences are comprehensive in nature? 16

OR

What do you mean by Socio-Economic crime? Attempt an exhaustive analysis of the nature of such crime by referring to at least two significant rulings, announced by the Apex Court in recent times. 16

4. Different elements of Socio-Economic Crimes has been recognised in Criminal jurisprudence. Over the years a marked tendency have been observed in increased in Socio-Economic crimes.
Analyse the recent trends and state whether this can be confined within the traditionally demarcated elements or there is a need to introduce new elements in Socio-Economic crime. 16

OR

There is a broad distinction between 'Social' and 'Economic' offences, yet there may be gray areas that may define any such con'credite distinction. Analysis the nature of such offences and state the manner in which jurists have reflected upon them.

5. Punishment can be different types; the object of some being to prevent further crimes. Attempt and analysis of such preventive measures taken recourse to in the sphere of Socio-Economic crime. Do you feel there is a need to adapt Crime Prevention mechanism in criminal justice system within the ambit of Socio-Economic Crime.

16

OR

Many Socio-Economic Crimes are resorted to out of greed rather than need. In such situation do you advocate adoption of preventive or remedial measures. Justify your answer with reasons.

1.