

Total number of printed pages-4

14 (LLM-3) 3024

2014

SOCIO-ECONOMIC CRIME II

Paper - 3024

Full Marks : 80

Pass Marks : 32

Time : Three hours

The figures in the margin indicate full marks for the questions.

Donald Traft described the crime being co-related with social change.

Briefly describe the importance of sociology of law in dealing with crime. 16

OR

What are the various legislative measures adopted in India in controlling socio-economic crimes ?

Discuss in details with reference to present day context with practical examples. 16

Contd.

With reference to the Prevention of Food Adulteration Act, 1954, give a comparative account of the adulteration by any human agency and due to natural causes.

Embellish your answer by citing some important judgements of the Supreme Court of India. 16

OR

What are the main objectives with which the Essential Commodities Act, 1955 was enacted? Has this law become successful in translating those objectives into reality in India since its inception? Explain with practical examples. 16

Give a vivid description of the Santhanam Committee Report. How far the recommendations / suggestions of the Committee have been complied with till so far in India?

Give a critical personal account of yours in this regard with justifications. 8+8=16

OR

Critically evaluate the role of higher judiciary in India towards containing various types of socio-economic crimes in India, citing few of the landmark judgements of the Apex Court of India.

Put forward some practical and workable suggestions from your end. 8+8=16

4. Briefly discuss the important provisions of the Immoral Traffic (Prevention) Act, 1956.

Discuss the right of women (fundamental) against exploitation as provided under Article 23 of the Constitution of India.

How far the provisions of law and the constitution are really successful in containing the menace? Give some concrete suggestions. 6+6+4=16

OR

Critically evaluate the success and failure in implementing the protection of women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005. Give your answer with practical examples. 16

5. What are the primary objectives with which the National Security Act, 1980 was enacted? Critically examine the constitutional compatibility of the Act in terms of globally declared and recognized basic human rights of the citizens of India. 8+8=16

OR

Discuss in brief the provisions of the Arms Act, 1959 relating to acquisition, possession, manufacture, sale, import, export and transport of arms and ammunitions.

What are the prerequisites for granting a license as provided in the provisions relating to granting of licenses ?

8+8=16